

6 April 2023

Holy Thursday of the Lord's Supper

On behalf of the Board of Directors, I am grateful to Archbishop Pérez for giving us Fr. Bochanski for these years of service to Courage International, and wish Father well as he returns to his home Archdiocese of Philadelphia in this new role.

We are already at work to provide continuity in leadership for Courage, so that the next few months will be as smooth as possible for you. I have been working with Fr. Bochanski for a number of years as both a chaplain and as a member of the Board of Directors, and will continue to get further up to speed in Fr. Bochanski's remaining months with Courage.

Planning for our annual summer Conference is well underway and will continue. Fr. Bochanski, Fr. Blatchford, the Board of Directors and I will continue to be in regular contact with each other to finalize the planning for the Conference. I look forward to seeing many of you there.

Discernment for the next Executive Director is also well underway. The Episcopal Board is highly involved, and we have a number of meetings planned already to identify the right candidate to fill this unique role in the life of the Church. Please keep praying for everyone on staff at Courage, for our membership and chaplains, and for Fr. Bochanski as he prepares to return home for his new assignment in Philadelphia.

In Christ, the Eternal High Priest,

Fr. Kyle Schnippel
Chairman, Board of Directors